

1.	Dauntless	Fearless
2.	Dearth	Scarcity, as of something customary, essential ,or desirable.
3.	Debase	To lower in character or virtue.
4.	Debonair	Having gentle or courteous bearing or manner.
5.	Decrepit	Enfeebled, as by old age or some chronic infirmity.
6.	Defalcate	To cut off or take away, as a part of something.
7.	Deference	Respectful submission or yielding, as to another's opinion, wishes, or judgment
8.	Deleterious	Hurtful, morally or physically.
9.	Demagogue	An unprincipled politician. One with no moral principles.
10.	Denizen	Inhabitant One who occupies a space or dwelling.
11.	Deplorable	Contemptible. One who is hated.
12.	Diaphanous	Transparent
13.	Dilapidated	Fallen into decay or partial ruin.
14.	Dilatory	Tending to cause delay.
15.	Disconsolate	Grief-stricken.
16.	Disparage	To regard or speak of slightingly.
17.	Dissonant	Harsh or disagreeable in sound.
18.	Dogmatic	Making statements without argument or evidence.
19.	Doleful	Melancholy. Mournfully sad.
20.	Dubious	Doubtful.