

|     |                      |   |
|-----|----------------------|---|
| 1.  | candor        | The quality of frankness or outspokenness.  |
| 2.  | capacious     | Roomy.  |
| 3.  | capitulate    | To surrender or stipulate terms.  |
| 4.  | carrion       | Dead and putrefying flesh.  |
| 5.  | castigate     | To punish.  |
| 6.  | caustic       | Sarcastic and severe.   |
| 7.  | cessation     | Surrender, as of possessions or rights. To stop doing something.                      |
| 8.  | chasm         | A yawning hollow, as in the earth's surface.  |
| 9.  | chasten       | To purify by affliction.  |
| 10. | choleric      | Easily provoked to anger.   |
| 11. | circumspect   | Showing watchfulness, caution, or careful consideration.                              |
| 12. | clandestine   | very secret   |
| 13. | clemency      | Mercy.  |
| 14. | coalescence   | The act or process of coming together so as to form one body, combination, or product |
| 15. | coddle        | To treat as a baby or an invalid.   |
| 16. | cogent        | Appealing strongly to the reason or conscience.                                       |
| 17. | cognizant     | Taking notice. To be carefully aware.   |
| 18. | collusion     | A secret agreement for a wrongful purpose.  |
| 19. | conflagration | A great fire, as of many buildings, a forest, or the like.                            |
| 20. | conjecture    | a guess.  |