

| | | |
|-----|---------------------|---|
| 1. | Dauntless | Fearless |
| 2. | Dearth | Scarcity, as of something customary, essential ,or desirable. |
| 3. | Debase | To lower in character or virtue. |
| 4. | Debonair | Having gentle or courteous bearing or manner. |
| 5. | Decrepit | Enfeebled, as by old age or some chronic infirmity. |
| 6. | Defalcate | To cut off or take away, as a part of something. |
| 7. | Deference | Respectful submission or yielding, as to another's opinion, wishes, or judgment |
| 8. | Deleterious | Hurtful, morally or physically. |
| 9. | Demagogue | An unprincipled politician. One with no moral principles. |
| 10. | Denizen | Inhabitant One who occupies a space or dwelling. |
| 11. | Deplorable | Contemptible. One who is hated. |
| 12. | Diaphanous | Transparent |
| 13. | Dilapidated | Fallen into decay or partial ruin. |
| 14. | Dilatory | Tending to cause delay. |
| 15. | Disconsolate | Grief-stricken. |
| 16. | Disparage | To regard or speak of slightingly. |
| 17. | Dissonant | Harsh or disagreeable in sound. |
| 18. | Dogmatic | Making statements without argument or evidence. |
| 19. | Doleful | Melancholy. Mournfully sad. |
| 20. | Dubious | Doubtful. |